Edna Gray Memorial Lecture

Edna Gray, the artist and keen member of our church, passed away in February 2016. At 7.30pm on Friday 25th November, in the church at St John's, we are holding the Edna Gray Memorial Lecture. It is to be given by David Annand, the well-known local sculptor. Its title, 'Life as a sculptor.' David's works include Jim Clark at Kilmany, Jimmy Shand in Auchtermuchty, Hamish McHamish in St Andrews, the Ring in Perth High St and most recently, Mary, Queen of Scots at Linlithgow Palace. David's illustrated talk will last about 45 minutes, then, after a question and answer session, we retire to the church hall for a cheese and wine organised by Luvians of Cupar. (Soft drinks, tea and coffee will also be available) Tickets, costing £10, will be available after the services today and throughout November at the church door and in the hall. We hope this will be a unique event, memorable and highly enjoyable in Edna's memory.
